F Undaménta e-ius * in mónti-bus sanctis.

ant. 2 unedited Ecce venio ... dicit Dominus. Distinct from the well known Advent Ecce venio ... dare ..., but unfortunately nothing else is known. Not even the complete text. And the chant databases (CANTUS, Antiphonale Synopticum) don't know such an antiphon. Could it be that the first part of the Ecce venio ... dare ... is to be used? But that would probably be noted in the OCO. But at least for now – let's use it.
